Smallpox has a good hold in Wheeling, W. Va., and all the boats coming down should be carefully watched so an one from that city he slowed to spread the disease all slong the river.

The Winchester Democrat says the typhold fever epidemic in the Athens neighborhood and in the adjoining part of Clark still continues. The cshool at Locust Grove has been closed. Wood on Owen has eight cases of the fever in his family.

Even insammate things will turn when The colored people of this county are arranging to hold a fair at Germantown this year—October 10th, 11th and 13th. Messrs. Pearce, Duley & Jenkins of the State National have formed a syndi-cate for handling rare coins and curios. Evangelist J. A. Howard, who has been so successful in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky, is dead in Morgan

Even inanimate things will turn when tortured too far. The whole front of a Chicago church organ fell off just as the quartet arose to sing. This should be a warning to some of the serenaders in this city. They will wake up some night under a rockpile. In the city of Louisville there is a church for every 1,176 people, there be-ing 170 houses of worship for the 200,000 under a rockpife.

The special committee of the Portsmouth Preshytery, which met at Portsmouth last Monday to investigate the charges which had been preferred against Rev. S. Gobelt, formerly Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church at that place, will make their report to the Presbytery at Manchester September 19th. It was Mr. J. Lnd Browning who formed me of the escort to Grand Master Thomas, and not G. W. Rogers as printed It was the Rev. E. B. Cake who re-cently married a couple as printed in THE LEDGER, and not the Rev. D. P. Holt, as printed in another paper.
